

Waiting for WINDOWS to Boot

Robert J. Marks II

$\text{♩} = 110$

Vocals

C Dm Em F G G⁷ C G C G

I washed the car and WIN-DOW's did boot I

Pno

C G C F G G⁷ C G

scrubbed the tires. Rolled back the o - do - me - ter too. I checked the coil and can com - pute and like a re - cur - ring di - sease I typed six pag - es and

Pno

C G C F G G⁷ F

changed the oil wait - ing for WIN - DOWS to boot. Then I brushed my teeth where felt the rage as WIN - DOWS de - ci - ded to freeze. So I washed the dog and

Pno

C F G G⁷ C Dm

I could reach and bleached my favo - rite tooth. I swabbed my ear drums and slopped the hogs and stringed a bowl of beans. I checked my P. C. sad -

Pno

Em F G G⁷ C G C Dm Em F

flossed my gums wait - ing for WIN - DOWS to boot. Wait dened to see that WIN - DOW's had blue screened My

Pno

G G⁷ C G C Dm Em F G G⁷ C G

ing - for win - dows to boot. WIN - A WIN - DOW's had blue screened. - Com -

Pno

C G C G C F G G⁷ 2

quar - ter bil - lion WIN-DOWS us - ers, A mi-nute each day per boot.
 pu-ters are best at play - ing chess but they are no match for me I'm

Pno

C G C G C F G G⁷

Comes to o-ver a thou - sand years plus a cen-tury or two. A bet-ter out-fox-ing P. C.'s in kick box-ing down the stairs in - to the street. When

Pno

F C F G

thou - sand years each day I fear no mat - ter your world view is bud-get per - mits I'll get Li-nex. A Mac or an i - Pad will do. I

Pno

C Dm Em F G G⁷ C G C Dm

too much time to stand in line wai- ting for WIN-DOWS to boot.
 hum-bly pur - port life is too short to wait for WIN-DOWS to boot.

Pno

Em F G G⁷ C G

Wait ing- for win - dows to (boot)
 Wai - ing for WIN-DOWS to boot.